Stewardship Moment

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. From the rich Eucharistic themes to be drawn from today's second reading, one stewardship theme stands out: The Eucharist is Christ's gift to us. Good stewards are grateful for this gift and realize that no matter their station in life, they are welcome to come to the table and receive the body and blood of Christ. If Jesus could break bread with his betrayer, Judas, his denier, Peter, and the other ten who deserted him, then he will welcome us. Do we truly appreciate what a tremendous gift it is to approach the Lord's table? Do we realize that the Holy Spirit means to transform us by the gift of Christ's body and blood?

Un Momento de Corresponsabilidad

El Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. De la riqueza de temas Eucarísticos a extraer de la segunda lectura de hoy, destaca un tema de corresponsabilidad: la Eucaristía es el don de Cristo para nosotros. Los buenos corresponsables están agradecidos por este don y conscientes de que sin importar la etapa de su vida, ellos son invitados a venir a la mesa y recibir el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo. Si Jesús pudo compartir el pan con Judas, quien lo traicionó, con Pedro, que lo negó, y con los otros diez que lo abandonaron, entonces Él nos acogerá. ¿Apreciamos verdaderamente el extraordinario don que es el acercarnos a la mesa del Señor? ¿Estamos conscientes de que el Espíritu Santo nos transforma por el don del cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo?

Social Justice Mass Intention

You are invited to attend and pray on Tuesday, June 21. The Mass intention is for: Refugees and others fleeing oppression.

There are three Basic Principles of Catholic Social Teaching on Immigration. First Principle: People have the right to migrate to sustain their lives and the lives of their families. Second Principle: A country has the right to regulate its borders and to control immigration. Finally, immigration policy that allows people to live here and contribute to society for years but refuses to offer them the opportunity to achieve legal status does not serve the common good. The presence of millions of people living without easy access to basic human rights and necessities is a great injustice. It is the position of the Catholic Church that pastoral, educational, medical, and social services provided by the Church are never conditioned on legal status. All persons are invited to participate in our parishes, attend our schools, and receive other services offered by our institutions and programs.
