

A Stewardship Moment

In today's Gospel Jesus makes a bold and clear statement to his disciples. "I give you a new commandment: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." We are called to love others as a sign of our discipleship in Jesus Christ. That includes even those "others" we might prefer to forget. We are so often tempted to draw lines between those who we will love and those who we consider not worthy of our love. This week take time to reflect on Jesus' love command. How often do we heed Jesus' love command? What change in our lives must take place in order for us to obey this command?

Un Momento de Corresponsabilidad

En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús hace una declaración audaz y clara a sus discípulos. "Os doy un mandamiento nuevo: amaos los unos a los otros. Así como yo los he amado, así también ustedes deben amarse unos a otros. Así es como todos sabrán que son mis discípulos, si se aman los unos a los otros." Nosotros estamos llamados a amar a los demás como un signo de nuestro discipulado en Jesucristo. Esto incluye aún a esos "otros" que tal vez preferiríamos olvidar. A menudo nos sentimos tentados a marcar líneas entre aquellos que amaremos y aquellos a quienes nosotros consideramos que no son dignos de nuestro amor. Esta semana tome un tiempo para reflexionar acerca del mandamiento de amor de Jesús. ¿Con qué frecuencia prestamos atención al mandamiento de amor de Jesús? ¿Qué cambio en nuestras vidas debe tener lugar para que podamos obedecer este mandamiento?

Social Justice Mass Intention

You are invited to attend and pray on Thursday, May 8. The Mass intention is for: Those suffering from mental health issues.

Although mental illness is a pervasive and common aspect of human life, there is an alarming shortage of mental and behavioral health resources and providers. Furthermore, over the last decade, both before and after the COVID-19 pandemic, we have seen an alarming increase in depression and suicidal tendencies, especially among young people. Despite its ubiquity, mental illness and mental health challenges often remain associated with embarrassment, shame, or guilt, which can prevent people from seeking and receiving help.

Such a stigma contradicts the compassion of Jesus and is contrary to the foundation of Catholic Social Teaching. As pastors, we want to emphasize this point to anyone who is suffering from mental illness or facing mental health challenges: nobody and nothing can alter or diminish your God-given dignity. You are a beloved child of God, a God of healing and hope. <https://www.usccb.org/resources/Introductory%20Statement%20on%20National%20Catholic%20Mental%20Health%20Campaign,%20October%2010,%202023.pdf>

Intenciones del Ministerio de Justicia Social

Está invitado a asistir y orar en la misa del jueves 8 de mayo. La intención de la misa es por: Aquellos que sufren problemas de salud mental.

Si bien las enfermedades mentales son un aspecto generalizado y común de la vida humana, existe una alarmante escasez de recursos y profesionales de la salud mental y conductual. Además, durante la última década, tanto antes como después de la pandemia de COVID-19, hemos observado un aumento alarmante de la depresión y las tendencias suicidas, especialmente entre los jóvenes. A pesar de su ubicuidad, las enfermedades mentales y los problemas de salud mental a menudo se asocian con la vergüenza, la culpa o la culpa, lo que puede impedir que las personas busquen y reciban ayuda.

Este estigma contradice la compasión de Jesús y es contrario al fundamento de la Doctrina Social Católica. Como pastores, queremos enfatizar este punto a cualquier persona que padezca una enfermedad mental o enfrente problemas de salud mental: nada ni nadie puede alterar o disminuir la dignidad que Dios les dio. Eres un hijo amado de Dios, un Dios de sanación y esperanza. <https://www.usccb.org/resources/Introductory%20Statement%20on%20National%20Catholic%20Mental%20Health%20Campaign,%20October%2010,%202023.pdf>
