Our Mission: To bring people to Jesus.
Nuestra Misión: Llevar la gente a Jesús.

October 17/18, 2026
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Stewardship Moment

Jesus offers us a profound teaching on stewardship in this weekend's reading: What belongs to Caesar? What belongs to God? Christian stewards recognize that everything they have belongs to God. God created them, and God has claims on every part of their existence. They also realize that the sovereign is an institution whose nature and purpose is to promote the common good and protect the welfare of its citizenry. As long as it accomplishes this mission while treating every single person with deep respect, justice and compassion, it merits the steward's support and cooperation. Christian stewards know what belongs to the Lord, and they are better citizens when they live their lives according to his Gospel.

Un Momento de Corresponsabilidad

Jesús nos ofrece una enseñanza profunda sobre la corresponsabilidad en la lectura de este fin de semana: ¿Qué pertenece al César? ¿Qué es de Dios? Los corresponsables cristianos reconocen que todo lo que tienen le pertenece a Dios. Dios los creó, y Dios tiene derechos sobre cada parte de su existencia. También se dan cuenta de que el soberano es una institución cuya naturaleza y propósito es promover el bien común y proteger el bienestar de su ciudadanía. Siempre que logre esta misión y trate a cada persona con profundo respeto, justicia y compasión, merece el apoyo y la cooperación del corresponsable. Los corresponsables cristianos saben lo que es del Señor y son mejores ciudadanos cuando viven su vida de acuerdo con su Evangelio.

Social Justice Mass Intention

You are invited to attend and pray on Monday, October 19. The Mass intention is for: Missionaries.

Why do Catholics do missionary work in the first place?

Catholic missionary work begins with God's own movement toward the world. In Christian faith, God does not remain distant. God comes near, speaks, accompanies, heals, and gathers. The Church continues that movement. That is why mission is not an optional side project for especially adventurous believers. It is part of what the Church is.

Jesus tells his disciples to go out to all nations, preach the Gospel, care for the sick, and make disciples.

Catholics have always understood those words as both spiritual and practical. The Gospel is meant to be shared but never reduced to speech alone. If we announce the love of Christ while ignoring hunger, violence, loneliness, or injustice, our witness becomes thin. If we serve material needs while hiding the source of our hope, we also fall short of the fullness of mission. So Catholic mission holds these realities together. It proclaims. It serves. It listens. It accompanies. It invites. It also learns. Mission is not a one-way transaction from the strong to the weak. At its best, it is a relationship in which all are called deeper into truth, conversion, and communion.

Intenciones del Ministerio de Justicia Social

Está invitado a asistir y orar en la misa del lunes 19 de octubre. La intención de la misa es por: Misioneros.

¿Por qué los católicos realizan trabajo misionero en primer lugar?

El trabajo misionero católico comienza con el propio movimiento de Dios hacia el mundo. En la fe cristiana, Dios no permanece distante. Dios se acerca, habla, acompaña, sana y reúne. La Iglesia continúa ese movimiento. Por eso, la misión no es un proyecto secundario opcional para creyentes especialmente aventureros. Es parte de lo que es la Iglesia.

Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que vayan a todas las naciones, proclamen el Evangelio, cuiden a los enfermos y hagan discípulos. Los católicos siempre han entendido esas palabras como algo tanto espiritual como práctico. El Evangelio está destinado a ser compartido, pero nunca reducido únicamente a palabras. Si anunciamos el amor de Cristo mientras ignoramos el hambre, la violencia, la soledad o la injusticia, nuestro testimonio se vuelve superficial. Si atendemos las necesidades materiales mientras ocultamos la fuente de nuestra esperanza, también nos quedamos cortos respecto a la plenitud de la misión. Así que la misión católica mantiene unidas estas realidades. Proclama. Sirve. Escucha. Acompaña. Invita. También aprende. La misión no es una transacción unidireccional de los fuertes hacia los débiles. En su mejor expresión, es una relación en la que todos están llamados a profundizar en la verdad, la conversión y la comunión. <https://xaverianmissionaries.org/%EF%BB%BF/why-do-catholics-do-missionary-work/>

Buy Halloween candy and treats without plastic packaging this year. Look for treats that are packaged in foil, cardboard or paper. Bulk bins often have some great choices wrapped in foil or paper. They are often more economical as well. Milk Duds, Junior Mints, Nerds, M&Ms, and Whoppers have traditionally come in paper or cardboard wrappers. What other choices can you find?

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations"

A PASTORAL LETTER ON MISSION RENEWAL of the Archbishop of Portland in Oregon

the Most Reverend Alexander K. Sample to the Priests, Deacons and Faithful of the Archdiocese

PART I: GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES

MISSION RENEWAL IN THE HEART

On the Solemnity of Corpus Christi 2026, with well over 1,000 members of the faithful present at the Mass, including priests, deacons and religious, I solemnly consecrated the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. We did this in anticipation of the consecration of our nation to the Sacred Heart by all the bishops of the United States. I see this powerful moment in our local Church as an official and intentional beginning of what I have described as Mission Renewal in our Archdiocese.

From the Heart of Jesus flow mercy, love and compassion for the whole world, and in a special way for the people of Western Oregon. We find ourselves, I believe, in a unique and pivotal time in the history of our Church. One might call it a "watershed moment" for us all. The world and our local community in Western Oregon are at a turning point. Will society and culture continue on a path away from God and faith, or will there be a reawakening to the things that truly matter and endure? I believe it is the latter.

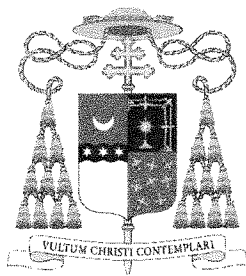

We are already seeing strong signs of people returning to spiritual things, to faith and to the Church founded by Jesus Christ. In the last few years, we have seen ever-increasing numbers of people coming into the Church. These numbers are actually quite stunning, especially given the fact that Oregon is considered a very secular and "unchurched" state, where we are barely 11% of the total population. This is a phenomenon that is being seen across the country but is happening on a comparatively large scale here in our own Archdiocese. What I find particularly encouraging is the number of young people coming to the Church.

CARTA PASTORAL SOBRE LA RENOVACIÓN DE LA MISIÓN

del Arzobispo de Portland en Oregón
Su Excelencia Reverendísima Alexander K. Sample
a los sacerdotes, diáconos, religiosos y fieles de la Arquidiócesis

PARTE I: VAYAN Y HAGAN DISCÍPULOS

LA RENOVACIÓN DE LA MISIÓN EN EL CORAZÓN

En la Solemnidad de Corpus Christi de 2026, con bastante más de 1,000 fieles presentes en la Misa, incluidos sacerdotes, diáconos y religiosos, consagré solemnemente la Arquidiócesis de Portland en Oregón al Sacratísimo Corazón de Jesús. Lo hicimos anticipándonos a la consagración de nuestra nación al Sagrado Corazón por todos los obispos de los Estados Unidos. Veo este poderoso momento en nuestra Iglesia local como un comienzo oficial e intencional de lo que he descrito como la Renovación de la Misión en nuestra Arquidiócesis.

Del Corazón de Jesús brotan misericordia, amor y compasión para el mundo entero y, de modo especial, para el pueblo del oeste de Oregón. Creo que nos encontramos en un momento único y decisivo de la historia de nuestra Iglesia. Podría llamarse un “momento crucial” para todos nosotros. El mundo y nuestra comunidad local en el oeste de Oregón están en un punto de inflexión. ¿Continuarán la sociedad y la cultura por un camino que se aleja de Dios y de la fe, o habrá un despertar hacia las cosas que verdaderamente importan y perduran? Creo que será esto último.

Ya estamos viendo señales fuertes de que las personas vuelven a las realidades espirituales, a la fe y a la Iglesia fundada por Jesucristo. En los últimos años hemos visto un número cada vez mayor de personas que ingresan en la Iglesia. Las cifras son realmente sorprendentes, especialmente dado que Oregon es considerado un estado muy secular y “sin iglesia”, donde apenas constituimos el 11% de la población total. Es un fenómeno que se observa en todo el país, pero que está ocurriendo a una escala comparativamente grande aquí en nuestra propia Arquidiócesis. Lo que me resulta especialmente alentador es la cantidad de jóvenes que se acercan a la Iglesia.
